

Bloomington MAC Meeting
Meeting Minutes

Tuesday, July 11, 2006

The meeting was called to order at 7 p.m. and opened with the Pledge of Allegiance

Council Members Present

Lynda Gonzalez	Betty Gosney	Mike Koss
Eric Scott	Gregory Ware

Absent:

Juanita Ruiz	Adrian McDaniel
--------------	-----------------

Special Presentation:

Code Enforcement – Phillip Salazar, Code Enforcement Officer

Mr. Salazar responded to various code enforcement related questions. Residents asked for clarification on parking of commercial vehicles and proper land use. Mr. Salazar also explained that code enforcement operates on a complaint basis only. Once a complaint is received, a notice is sent to the property owner(s) and followed by an onsite investigation.

Bloomington Incorporation Committee – Eric Davenport

The BIC is circulating petitions in support of their bid to incorporate Bloomington as a city. They are also asking for residents to donate funds to offset some of the application fees.

Staff Reports:

5th District Field Representative – Amber Tiedgen

No Report

Sheriff's Dept. – Lt. Kovensky

A child predator was arrested as he attempted to enter the country. He owned residence in Bloomington. He is believed to be involved in an international child pornography ring.

The Sheriff's Dept. is aware of the increasing theft of metal. They encourage residents to contact the Sheriff's Dept. should they suspect someone of stealing copper and/or other metals.

The Sheriff's Dept. worked closely with county and municipal fire departments to enforce the county's no fireworks ordinance throughout the 4th of July weekend.

Residents shared concerns with excessive calls and complaints placed by a single individual. Lt. Kovensky suggested organizing a forum for residents to work with Code Enforcement, Sheriff's Dept. and the Supervisor's office to resolve this issue.

Special Districts – Tim Millington

Special Districts will present plans for improvement to the playground equipment at Kessler Park to the Board of Supervisors. They are also working to improve the community center.

The MAC has requested Special Districts to look into several issues at Kessler Park regarding tree trimming and the condition of the baseball fields.

California Highway Patrol

Officer Joe Ramos is the Community Resource Officer. He can be reached at (909) 382-4247.
